

PERSONAL REFLECTION

Take some time to be still before God. Focus your thoughts on Him. Slow down and be with God. Listen.

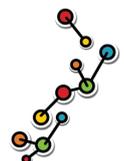

When you are ready, read these verses from 2 Timothy:

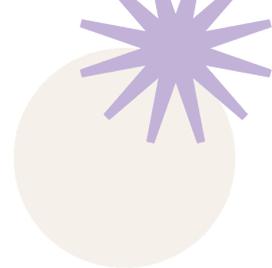

"But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have become convinced of, because you know those from whom you learned it, and how from infancy you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work."

2 Timothy 3:14-17

REFLECT

As you reflect on the Bible, the content you heard at Summit Connect, whether through the all-together sessions, breakouts, conversations, or discussions, what has God been saying to you?

Use the following questions to prompt your thinking. Choose the ones that are helpful. You don't need to answer all of them.

What was new for you?

What challenged you?

What encouraged you?

What inspired you?

What are you excited to try?

In what ways do you sense the Holy Spirit's prompting?

What threads did you see God weaving through your conversations, interactions, and thoughts over Summit Connect?

Are there key words/phrases/pictures that come to mind?

What are you feeling resistance to?

What are the barriers/challenges/obstacles that you see hindering a way forward?

PLAN

Take some time to discern what the next steps are.

What are three points from this reflection that you want to pursue, think about further or action?

LISTEN & SHARE

Take turns to share with the group from your personal reflections. This is not a discussion time but rather a chance to listen to each other. There will be time to discuss later.

Listening well means not interrupting or interjecting with your own ideas, opinions, or solutions. It means not judging or assuming you know what is coming next. Give the person speaking your full attention. Listen without preparing what you will say next or in response. Just listen.

You may want to make notes.

DISCERN

As a group, discuss what have been the common themes, ideas, questions, phrases, or pictures that you have heard. Ask questions to clarify any points others have made in the listening section. Use post it notes or a whiteboard to collate ideas.

Where do we sense God is directing our attention?

Where is he inviting us to go deeper?

What are we feeling resistance to? Why?

What are the barriers/challenges/obstacles that we see hindering a way forward?

What ideas do we want to pursue? Which ones should we park for now?

PLAN

Decide as a group what the next steps are.

Make a plan for further prayer, discussion or action on the points agreed on above.
